Performance.
Education.
Community.

Join VCM Friends today and help us inspire communities both in the UK and beyond.

Every year the VCM Foundation provides inspirational experiences to 40,000 young people around the world.

As a leading small music charity in a climate in which funding for music education is under increasing pressure, the VCM Foundation depends on the generosity of our friends to help us achieve our ambitious goals to inspire communities across the world through music. We receive no regular public funding and contributions from our friends make a vital difference to our programme of much needed activity.

By supporting the VCM Foundation, you are helping VOCES8 and Apollo5 bring performance excellence to over 100,000 people in live concerts each year, as well as contributing to our continued efforts to work with and improve the lives of young people all over the globe. Both nationally and internationally, we are working across a wide range of ability levels providing much needed sustainable support for school students, teachers and aspiring young professionals.

There are many ways you can get involved with supporting the work of the VCM Foundation, including joining one of our Friendship levels, becoming a member of the VCM100, sponsoring a singer, or leaving a legacy.

Should you wish to discuss any aspect of how you can support the foundation, please contact Thomas Webb-Wilson (thomas@vcm.foundation) or Chris Wardle (chris@vcm.foundation).

Our Friends play an essential role in supporting the work of the VCM Foundation. They help us grow, reach new audiences and explore innovative projects. We offer several levels of Friendship, with differing ranges of benefits designed to bring you closer to the group:

VCM100 £1,000 min. per annum
